

Protective Security Program Services

AFRY has significant experience in guiding companies through the crucial phases of meeting protective security legislation. Our approach aims to achieve effective progress with your protective security work.

Security Protection Analysis

- Stakeholder analysis
- Business and mission analysis
- Security analysis to identify and determine the value of assets
- Regulatory analysis
- Risk and Vulnerability analysis

Planning Preventive Measures

- Protective security action plan to track improvements
- Information security
- Physical security
- Personnel security
- Education
- Development of Protective Security Instruction

Meet legislative requirements to enter into a protective security agreement

- Maintain achieved status with regards to Protective Security
- Secure handling of sensitive information
- Handling of critical infrastructure

Key benefits

- Creates a clear picture of your company's risks and ability within Cyber Security and Protective Security
- Support your company to understand how, where and why it should invest in handling these risks
- Implements Cyber Security and Protective Security in a manner that provides for structured decision making
- Establishes a higher risk awareness culture through education
- Meet laws within the field of protective security and being able to win business in the field of providing products and services of critical infrastructure

Contact

Gustav Sandberg
Market Area Manager, Cyber Security
gustav.sandberg@afry.com

+46 10 505 20 44