ÅF wins major contract with Ringhals

ÅF has been commissioned by Ringhals AB as principal technical consultant with responsibility for a comprehensive cable replacement process in the containment building at Ringhals 1. ÅF's participation will consist chiefly of project management services and the provision of resources for analysis and constructional design.

The order is worth approximately SEK 150 million for ÅF.

The main aim of the project is to ensure the stable operation of the reactor and good safety margins.

Work is to start immediately and is expected to extend over the next four years.
