ÅF wins 1 MEUR energy contract in India

ÅF has won a 1 MEUR consulting contract in India. ÅF will provide owners engineering services for a new 1000 MW gas fired power plant.

ÅF's services comprise of conceptual design and specification of the plant. ÅF will also advise the plant owner in the tendering process and procurement negotiations with contractors. The plant owner and investor is Tuff Energy, a large Indian industrial conglomerate.

The power plant will be built to Gujarat province in India.

This new consulting contract is an opening for ÅF in the fast growing Indian market for thermal power plants. ÅF has, until now been one of the largest consultants in the hydro power market in India. ÅF has had local presence in India for several years in Noida, a suburban city of Delhi.
