ÅF wins two energy projects with ATEL

ÅF has been appointed principal technical consultant by the Swiss energy company ATEL for the construction of two 400 MW gas-fuelled power plants in San Severo, Italy, and in Bayet, France.

The order is worth approximately 6 million euros for ÅF.

ÅF will assume responsibility for project management as well as contractor and site supervision in both projects.

ÅF's Swiss subsidiary ÅF-Colenco has a long and well-established business relationship as a supplier of technical consulting services to ATEL.
