

ÅF Lighting opens an office in Switzerland

ÅF continues to grow and establishes ÅF Lighting in Lugano, Switzerland.

ÅF will now offer lighting design and planning solutions for the built environment and architecture as well as expert services for bridges, tunnels and roads in the Swiss-Italian region.

“This is a significant step towards strengthening our presence in this part of Europe, where we have a number of important projects. It’s part of our international strategy to expand ÅF Lighting’s operations to markets outside Scandinavia,” says Allan Ruberg, Head of ÅF Lighting.

ÅF Lighting is an international business area within ÅF AB with a comprehensive portfolio of award winning projects, including Østbanehallen in Norway, House of Music Area in Denmark, and King K36 Office in Sweden. Today ÅF Lighting is among the largest lighting design practices in the world with more than 35 years of experience.

ÅF Lighting’s multi-disciplinary team consists of 93 employees including lighting designers, architects, engineers, planners, anthropologists, and experts in art, cultural history, and communication.
